

The Engler Scholarship:

This scholarship is available due to the generosity of The Paul and Virginia Engler Foundation. Paul is a native Nebraskan who through vision, hard work, sweat equity and tenacity built an exceptional career as an entrepreneur, industry leader, and dedicated advocate for building bridges for the next generation to cross. It is our honor and privilege to administer the thoughtful and intentional process of selecting scholarship recipients. However, the scholarship is only a small component of the value available to you through engagement in the Engler Agribusiness Entrepreneurship Program.

Scholarship Process and Schedule:

- The scholarship application process will open on October 10, 2021 with a deadline for all submissions of midnight (CST) on January 15, 2022.
- Semi-finalists will be notified on January 26, 2022.
- Phone interviews will be conducted from February 1-3, 2022.
- Finalists will be notified on or before February 9, and awards offered to those not advancing to the Finals.
- Finalist interviews will be conducted on campus February 18, 2022.
- Final awards will be offered by March 1, 2022.
