

ENGLER ENTREPRENEURSHIP MODULES

SPRING 2025

WHAT IS A MODULE?

We don't know who decided that 15 weeks of classwork was the best timeframe to learn a new subject, but we at Engler don't agree with that choice. We think that the way student's want to learn is changing.

That's why we put together modules. A module is a short, focused, and intense course built around a single subject. We believe focusing intently for a short amount of time is more valuable than a long class filled with busy work.

Get-in, learn the subject, and get out.

All of our modules are a single credit hour. It's our hope to provide a 'menu of options' in which you can select the topics that most interest you and where you are at in your entrepreneurial journey.

Many of these short courses are also taught by outside experts. Modules are an opportunity for us to bring in high-caliber industry and community leaders for you to learn from.

Don't mistake the shortness of these modules for lower-quality or lightness of work. These are intensive and focused courses that require a lot of work. But the idea is that you can get in and learn what you need quickly, and then move on!

We hope you find one that interests you!

HOW TO SIGN UP FOR A MODULE:

A few of our modules are held on a recurring basis and those can be found on MyRed under EAEP 300, 301 and 302. The rest of our modules are under EAEP 392 – Special Topics. Scroll down under that category to find which one you'd like to take. All modules are worth 1 credit.

However, if you'd like to take one for non-credit, you just need to let Michelle know at mbassford7@unl.edu.

If you have any trouble with the process, Michelle would be happy to help you!

ROADMAP

Designing Your Entrepreneurial Life

An entrepreneurial life is founded on action where people claim authorship of their lives and set a course into uncharted and uncertain waters. Individuals who forsake the status quo will inevitably face both external and internal resistance.

Students will identify and resolve barriers that prevent or reduce the expression of their entrepreneurial capacity, build a plan that promotes both professional and personal growth, and prototype techniques designed to create vision, focus, and impact. We will help you take the principles of Design Thinking and put them to work on your life post-graduation.

By the end of our four weeks together, you will have created three (or more) potential pathways to creating a life that is both personally and professionally joyful!

EAP 300-952

What You'll Learn

- How to prepare for and conduct high-stakes conversations, ensuring they're maximally productive and minimally destructive.
- How our brains predictably sabotage high stakes and feedback conversations and what we can do about it.
- How to give and receive feedback that fuels growth without triggering defensiveness.
- How to leverage conversational dynamics to build high-trust relationships while balancing empathy and directness — in service of creating healthy team and company cultures.

Who Is This Course For?

- Anyone who's avoided, dreaded, felt ill-equipped for important conversations — or experienced one go sideways and doesn't want to repeat it.
- Those who feel ill equipped to give or receive feedback well.
- Those who want to create and foster incredible team, division, or company cultures.
- Those who aspire to become not just good, but exceptional leaders, managers, c-level execs or founders.

About Cameron Popp

Cameron Popp is a builder, coach, entrepreneur, and student of human flourishing. After graduating from CASNR in 2013, he founded and ran a business and leadership coaching firm. In 2015, he started working with the Engler program by guest lecturing, and began teaching in 2021. His current full time role is at a Lincoln-based real estate software company but is always looking for the next thing to build. You can often find him reading nonfiction books, building a custom tiny home, or tinkering around the house.

"The master in the art of living makes little distinction between his work and his play, his labor and his leisure, his mind and his body, his education and his recreation, his love and his religion. He hardly knows which is which. He simply pursues his vision of excellence at whatever he does, leaving others to decide whether he is working or playing. To him he is always doing both."

EXPLORING NEGOTIATION

Earn the A, Win the Fight, Score the Customer, and Learn to Get More!

During your life you will come across hundreds of situations in which you can choose to negotiate or not.

Arguably one of the most important skills to learn in business and life, in this module we'll dive into the principals of negotiation. This course takes you through the human cognitive processes that lead us to make decisions, the various styles of negotiation and the complete negotiation process that turns duds into deals. We'll look at core strategies, learn how to 'ask', and practice negotiation right now.

Whether buying a house or car, deliberating contracts for your business, or reviewing your salary with your boss, your success in these activities will be heavily dependent on your ability to negotiate.

Jump into this module if you want to not only dig into the science and practice of negotiating, but have a desire to get more out of your purchases, relationships, business and life!
